profile

Geraldine's 11-year photojournalism career at the Los Angeles Times garnered a collaborative Pulitzer Prize. Later, extensive travel as a photographer and photo editor for an international magazine awakened her desire to connect with women through quilting.

Establishing connections through peer education, personal and institutional development, Geraldine began working with local groups and national brands like Juki America, Sew Steady, Peak Media, Fat Quarter Shop, Clover USA, CT Publishing, Art Gallery Fabrics and Island Batik Fabrics.

Geraldine empowers women through inspirational lectures and practical workshops at quilt retreats and national quilt shows. Working with women who want to enhance their quilting experience and become topnotch machine quilters, Geraldine shares her experience and expertise, enabling quilters to become more confident and develop professional, creative machine quilting skills.

testimonials

Carol Allison So great to take this workshop in the comfort of my own home. Thank you for explaining so carefully 😊

Sew Tasha Dena these companies need to pay you because every time I watch a live I discover another tool. Need in my inventory. Must get this ruler!!! 😄😄

Sew Tasha Great tip!!

Sew Tasha Ok I'm emailing Creative Grids...Dena for CG ambassador!!!!

Denise SoPatch33 Thank you for an informative show.. Gotta ago, will watch the replay tomorrow.

Sonja Houze Incredible! Thank you for explaining. I recently purchased this program last week and purchased the beginner book & designing more quilts but really enjoyed your tutorial.

Wilda Kruzinski Great demos, Dena! Some of the items you showed this evening were new to me. Love the scissors sharpener! Thank you!
